

NOMINATIONS FOR 1872

THE BANNER WE FIGHT UNDER.

For President, HORACE GREELEY, OF NEW YORK. For Vice-President, B. GRAZ BROWN, OF MISSOURI.

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS

GEORGE R. HIRM, of Linn county. H. H. GATES, of Wagon county.

I ACCEPT YOUR NOMINATION IN THE CONFIDENT TRUST THAT THE MASSES OF OUR COUNTRYMEN, NORTH AND SOUTH, ARE EAGER TO CLASP HANDS ACROSS THE BLOODY CHASM WHICH HAS TOO LONG DIVIDED THEM...

The Political Outlook.

The political outlook is cheering in the extreme for the Liberals. From every part of our great country each day brings the intelligence of the Liberal masses, Republican and Democratic, marching forward in a solid column to save our capital ridden country from the grasp of the leeches that under Grant the imbeciles, are endeavoring to destroy every vestige of Republican government...

GREELEY'S PROSPECTS IN POLK CO

We think we speak advisedly when we say that Horace Greeley will carry Polk county by at least 150 majority. It is true that the Liberal strength in the county is only about 50, yet the Good Templar element which numbers more than 100 votes (Republican) if it does not stultify itself, will support a life long abstainer before they will a drinker.

P. C. Sullivan, Esq., archon of the "Liberal" Club, at Salem, modestly suggests his own name on the electoral ticket made vacant by the withdrawal of Lane.

With what tenacity it clings to its well settled habit—lying.—What office does the editor of the Oregonian hold? and how much of the people's money does it receive annually from the hands of Grant.

Surely If We Would Be Happy We Must Mind Our Own Business.

The Oregonian and Statesman seem very much exercised over a few remarks we made on Wednesday evening of last week, before the Greeley Club at Salem. Both meanly and studiously avoid informing their readers of the position taken, or that we proved to the satisfaction of every unprejudiced man and woman present that Gen Grant had wantonly violated the Constitution of the United States, and had undertaken to force a "policy" upon the people against their will which was absolutely obnoxious, by his secret negotiations with the usurper Bax for the purchase of Santo Domingo and her people, against their will; we had not intended to stop to notice what these lickspittles of Ben Holliday said concerning us, but their repeated reference to us enables us to see clearly their determination to be noticed; we do not understand why the big overgrown baby of the Oregonian, should falsify us simply because we saw fit to speak our mind politically. He seems to have become arbitrary and evinces a disposition to proscribe the opinions of men who differ with him, since the time when peace was declared between the Capt. of his mercenary brigade and himself in consideration that the former should make up a pony purse at our commercial city, sufficient to enable Scotty to proceed to the capital of our nation and secure a fat office, at the hands of the ally of the Santo Domingo usurper; and as to the wisacre of the Statesman, not having sufficient information to form a belief as to whether or not, his bump of self-esteem has increased or decreased, since of yore, when he was a Democrat and legislator, we cannot say, whether the estimate he places upon himself now, is greater or less than then, and consequently refuse an opinion; gentlemen, would it not be as well to mind your own business?

GOOD NEWS.—From all portions of the country comes the cheering intelligence of the wheeling in of the rank and file of the disrupted Radical party in support of Greeley & Brown. Every body sees that the present besotted executive is an eye-sore in the moral element of the nation. The people have come to the conclusion that it will not do to have the electric current herald forth to the world daily, that their President is down at Long Branch, carousing with John Morrissey, Tom Murphy and other pimps, black-legs and gamblers while he should be at our Capital endeavoring to uphold the dignity of the Nation, which the people in an evil hour confided to him, and therefore they go for "honest Horace Greeley."

His Present Incompetency.

Nearly four years ago the Vancouver miscegenist was elevated by the people of the United States to the highest office within their gift, in view of his assertion "let us have peace." At that time the hope was entertained that the nation's wounds would be healed, the bloody sectional strife, which for eight long years had rent our country almost in twain, would cease, and that a new era would dawn upon the nation. How that hope has been fulfilled we shall now stop to enquire. None will deny that since the coming into power of the fringes that run the executive nonentity we have vainly looked to see any blessing that the masses of the people have received at its hands. It is true that it has rained manna on the heads of the aristocratic few, it has enriched millions of characterless political adventurers but to the masses of the people it has been as barren of good results as the fig tree mentioned in Holy Writ. It was hoped that with Grant in office the revenue would be collected honestly and the protection of the law extended to all people, but the present executive has placed in office such thieves and rascals as Tom Murphy, and silently looked on when they were engaged in their wholesale robbery of the people. He has allowed his satellites in the Southern States to commit every conceivable outrage in the name of law, and for these, and other great crimes against the government the people will hurl him from power in November next.

Subscribe for the REPUBLICAN.

The Reason Why.

The great body of the farmers and business men of this State have for the last two years been firmly opposed to the Grant dynasty; but there were always a few influential ones who no doubt from motives of honesty connected themselves with the Radical party and gave it a character. Most of these men it is noticeable are either openly for Greeley & Brown, or take no part in the desperate effort that is being made to foist Grant on the people for the next four years. Even this fact is being remarked by the people of this country, who are at a loss to understand why it is that the leading Oregon Republicans are so inactive. The reason is not difficult to find. Aside from the general rascality and corruption which have characterized the policy of the government since Grant came into power the appointment of incompetent tools to responsible positions in the face and eyes of responsible men have so utterly disgusted the honest Republicans that they are either out in open opposition to Grant, or passively await his defeat.

Facts.

The student of our political history during Grant's brief reign cannot fail being struck with the attempts made by the great nepotist to override the liberties of the Nation. That he has turned the whole power of the government into a machine for personal and family aggrandizement there is no one so fool hardy as to deny. Even the men—the pure and the good among the Republican party, who worked and spent their money freely to secure his election have weighed him and found him wanting, and we find them in the van of the great Liberal army which is sweeping over the Nation with victorious stride. Montana and Utah have spoken and their voice is reverberated back among the pine woods of Maine. The Liberal party is gaining strength every day. It is fast uniting in its ranks the best talents and most honorable principles of all political parties in the Nation and despite the almost superhuman efforts of the Grantites, the mighty current that is now sweeping in the direction of reform cannot be checked. The issues which divided the Democrats and Liberal Republicans before the war are dead, and all honest men and sincere lovers of their country are now joining hands in a vigorous and determined effort to sweep away the abuses which have grown out of the excitement of that time.

An exchange says: Geo. Francis Train is on his way to California Poor Golden State, our heart bleeds for you. It was bad enough to have a total failure of your crops for three years, but now to be inflicted with Train & Duniway is terrible.

The "Rum" has been butting at Polk county personals in the Salem Statesman, but as the egotistical idiot is not a responsible being we forbear noticing him. The great American laudanum taker has no brains to butt out.

Latest Despatches.

Sioux City, August 12.—Sixty Chiefs of the different tribes of the upper Missouri, in charge of Assistant Secretary Cowen and Commissioner Brackett will arrive here next week en route to Washington. "Sitting Bull" is among the party which includes representatives of all the hostile North Pacific tribes. London, August 14.—A Times Madrid special says that King Amadeus is reported to have signed a decree providing for the gradual abolition of slavery in Cuba and Porto Rico. The document which he signed is simply a code of rules providing for the enforcement of a law passed by the Cortes in 1869, providing for the emancipation of slaves in Spanish colonies.

New York, August 15.—A Geneva letter says the American claims for damages by privateers sum up about $7,000,000. The English papers in the case, however, fix the damage at $3,000,000, which, it is contended, is all that should be paid, if indeed any guilt is to be laid to England at all.

We furnish the REPUBLICAN and Democrat's Monthly for $1.00 per year.

All Over The State.

The Eugene Journal says:—From dealers in grain here we are given to understand that wheat will not probably command more than fifty cents per bushel when harvest is over. Very few officers are being made even at that figure.

We are informed that Hon. J. R. McLain on Wrayville, Baker county, was seriously hurt some ten days since by being thrown by a horse.

Hay is scarce and sells for $16 per ton in Umpqua valley.

Counterfeit half dollars are in circulation numerously in Roseburg.

The Baker City Democrat says: That a large band of Indians are off their reservations, and are annoying and frightening the settlers and others on the Payette and Weiser. Dendy, one of the chiefs, recently culped a short distance from Pence's ranch, and had a grand drunk on Boise whiskey. He warned the whites to leave there, as the Indians were getting ready to kill every body.

We glean from the Oregonian: Mr S. R. Rafferty living in Washington county 10 miles north of Hillsboro has a prodigy of a calf, three weeks old which has only two legs. The hind legs are full and well developed, and the front legs seem perfect, but no front legs are on its body. The calf seems to be otherwise perfect. It strives hard to get upon its hind legs, and it is thought that it will succeed yet. This calf will be one of the curiosities of the coming State Fair.

ARM HURT.—A small boy residing in the upper portion of the city, was up in a plum tree gathering the fruit on Saturday last. His footing gave way and he was precipitated to the ground a distance of about ten feet. He was picked up breathless, considerably bruised, and with an arm almost broken.

The Jacksonville Times says that in many places in Jackson county, oats will turn out fifty to seventy five bushels per acre. Hay is selling at $15 to $26 per ton.

The Liberal Republican, Greeley and Brown club at Eugene numbers 80 members. They are all Republicans.

The Oregonian mourning over the lack of news in Portland says:—Portland must stir her stumps; to make use of a questionable phrase, in municipal and mortuary affairs. Last week Vancouver boasts of the luxury of three marriages, no births, deaths, no accidents. Think of that, ye spinster bacchantes, unfortunates and doctors!

Navigation on the Upper Columbia has been abandoned for the present season.

A very large fire was raging last Sunday evening, several miles down the Willamette. The northern sky was illuminated from horizon to zenith. Whether it was a house, or only timber we have been unable to ascertain. It is most probably it was the latter.—Statesman.

Seventy cents is what the Salem mill is paying for old wheat.

A miner in Auburn Eastern Oregon picked up a small specimen weighing forty five ounces and worth $700.

Yesterday morning an accident occurred on the railroad near Comstock's Mill. It appears that a number of men were propelling themselves along the road on a hand car, and had just turned a curve when the shrill whistle of a locomotive was heard. The freight train had been delayed some time and was in a hurry to reach the first station beyond the mill, ahead of the passenger train. It was fier while that the men heard. Three of the men jumped, but one whose name we could not ascertain either paralyzed with fear or become insane therefrom remained on the hand car. The approaching train could not be stopped, and striking the car knocked him off. He fell below the locomotive, which with the entire train, passed entirely over him killing him instantly.

A meeting was held at Oregon City on Friday evening to take into consideration the feasibility of bridging the river at that place.

The editor of the Radical paper of Roseburg has thrown up the sponge and gone to working on the railroad. He says there will be a lively time in his line next fall, writing how baldly Grant is defeated.

John P. Miller is utilizing his swamp land by pasturing sheep thereon in the region of Klamath.

Mr Samuel J. Newman, of Marion county, received intelligence, on Saturday, of the outbreak of the Snake Indians not far from where he and his brother have a drove of cattle, on the head waters of the Deschutes River.

Arthur Charman, seventeen years of age, son of Thos. Charman of Oregon City, was drowned in the fifth while bathing with a number of other boys.

Mr. Parker reports that 40,000 acres of swamp land have been located in Coos county.
